ICONIC

LAGRANGE

HILLS & DALES ESTATE

More than a century old, the Callaway family home was designed to flow gracefully into Ferrell Gardens, which have adorned the property for more than 175 years. Learn about the Estate with a guided tour of the 30-room Georgian Italian villa and self-guided tour of the stunning gardens.

BELLEVUE MANSION

Tour this antebellum home built by U.S. Senator Benjamin Hill in 1855. Bellevue is a significant example of the Greek Revival style architecture popular in the antebellum South and was named a National Historic Landmark in 1973.

CALLAWAY MEMORIAL CLOCK TOWER

Built in 1929, the Callaway Memorial Tower was a tribute to textile magnate Fuller E. Callaway. The tower is patterned after the Campanile of St. Mark's Square in Venice, Italy and is a perfect place for photographs, picnics and exploring with the family.

LAGRANGE COLLEGE

The oldest private college in Georgia, LaGrange College has a rich history spanning 175 years. This history is observed in lovely architectural gems like Smith Hall, Sunny Gables and the ornate LaGrange College chapel.
